

	Time	Topic	Description	Speaker(s)	Company	Title
Industry	10.00	Introduction	Welcome and overview of the last year.	Ken Cronin	UKIFDA	CEO
	10.15	Sponsor's Key Note Speech	"How do we as distributors need to change our mindset away from commodity to speciality products?"	Simon Lawford	Crown Oil	Technical Sales Manager
	10.45	Roundtable	This roundtable will look at the progress being made around the UK with the introduction of renewable liquid fuels into both the domestic and commercial markets - highlighting key insights from those on the frontline.	John & Robert Weedon	Mitchell & Webber	Owners
				Richard Leaman	Watson Fuels	Domestic & Customer Service Director
				Scott Logan	Johnston Oils	Director
				Gary Nicholl	Nicholl Oils	Sales Director
				William Tebbit	Green Biofuels	CEO
Paul Rose	OFTEC	CEO
11.30	Learning	Future Fuels is not just about the fuel itself but how we deliver it in a safe and secure manner. Certas Energy's Mark Duncan will present the company's journey to improved health and safety, driver welfare, spills and trips and lost time accidents.	Mark Duncan	Certas Energy	Head of HSE
Customer	12.00	Customer Research	An insight into the first year of the UKIFDA & OFTEC Future Ready Fuel campaign – what our customers are saying and what the installers think.	Paul Rose	OFTEC	CEO
	12.20	The Residential Market	The facts and figures behind our residential customers.	Ken Cronin	UKIFDA	CEO
	12.30	A Residential View	Mars and Kirsten moved to the countryside and gave up their stressed-filled city lives in exchange for wellies, nature, fresh air and sustainable living. They called their project My Home Farm which in fact is a renovated Victorian farmhouse. In late 2021 as part of the UKIFDA and OFTEC demonstration project, Banwy Fuels replaced their kerosene with HVO. They tell their story about how their HVO boiler is performing.	Mars & Kirsten	My Home Farm	Homeowners
	12.50	The Large Building Market	The facts and figures behind our commercial customers.	Ken Cronin	UKIFDA	CEO
	13.00	HVO on a Bigger Scale	Mitchell and Webber was one of the early adopters of HVO. This presentation describes the company's journey to date from a celebrity homeowner, to a school, a church, almost an entire village and finally an historic building – showing whatever shape or size, renewable liquid fuels is a great option.	Various		Villagers, homeowners and business owners
	13.20	A Commercial View	Why telemetry matters for your future.	Nick Hawkins	Kingspan	Commercial Director, UK & Ireland
	13.40	Close

	Time	Topic	Description	Speaker(s)	Company	Title
Government	10.00	UK	Working in partnership with government – lessons learnt from the Red Diesel changes.	Ken Cronin	UKIFDA	CEO
	10.15	Ireland	Introducing the Irish Alliance for low carbon heating.	Kevin McPartlan	Fuels for Ireland	CEO
Market	11.00	Consumer Prices	How a price mechanism could work for UK home heating customers and the source and resources required to bring HVO to the domestic sector.	James Spencer	Portland Fuel	Managing Director
	11.30	Sustainability	The importance of sustainable fuel supply chains.	Gloria Esposito	Zemo Partnership	Head of Sustainability
	12.00	Market prices	What are the current prices?	George Duke	S&P Global Commodity Insights	Associate Editor, EMEA Biodiesel
Suppliers	12.30	Fuels for the Future	This session will highlight the many different ideas that are beginning to formulate across the fuel supply industry.	Speaker to be confirmed	P66	TBC
				Speaker to be confirmed	Greenery	TBC
				Carlos Rojas	Essar	Head of Commercial
				Colin Owens	Oil4Wales	CEO
	13.30	Close			UKIFDA	